VAN TRIPS

Norman Rockwell Museum. Monday, November 15th.
A warm welcome awaits you at the museum. Be surprised and delighted at the magnificence of Rockwell’s large scale original paintings and discover the highly relatable world of American Illustration – the art that tells our stories. Special exhibition - Jan Brett: Stories Near & Far. Jan Brett is one of the nation’s foremost and most widely read author/illustrators for children. This lively exhibition explores the breadth of Brett’s art and the travel experiences that have inspired her many children’s books and characters. Pay $28 at sign up. Bring additional money for lunch at Michaels of Stockbridge. Leave the Center at 9am.

Roosevelt Baths and Spa. Monday, November 29th.
Begin the new week with a private soak in Saratoga’s naturally effervescent water. You will discover a delightfully buoyant quality to the mineral water. The mineral water is captured cold from underground springs, then mixed with warm fresh water to a neutral temperature for maximum benefits. Pay $5 at sign up.

Lunch Bunch - 550 Waterfront. Friday, November 12th.
550 Waterfront is located on Saratoga Lake. It is a seafood & gastropub offering delicious craft cocktails with a beautiful view of the lake. Leave the Center at 11:30am. Pay $5 at sign up.

The Grand Hotels of Saratoga presented by Charlie Kuenzel
Friday, November 19th. 11am.

In the 1800’s our city was the number one destination for summer travelers. The grand hotels would open for the summer season. Hotels with names like Grand Union, United States, Congress Hall and Grand Central to name a few. These enormous hotels were like the cruise ships of today, offering the very best in food, music and entertainment. Since Saratoga Springs was the spot to see and be seen, the large porches found at each hotel were lined with rocking chairs that provided the place to people watch on hot afternoons. Join Charlie and immerse yourself in the history of these “grand hotels”.
